Illiterates above the age of 14 in metropolitan Cities

928. SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what is the estimattd number of illiterates above the age of fourteen years in the metropolitan cities of Delhi, Bombay, Calcutta and Madras;

(b) by when these illiterates are likely to be provided functional literacy;

(c) whether the children crossing the age of fourteen years during the aforesaid period would have been covered already by the literacy programme;

(d) if not, what would be their number; and

(e) by what year every person above fourteen years of age would be covered by the scheme?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT SHRI L. P. SHAHI) (a) According to 1981 Census, number of illterates in the +15 age group in four metropolitan cities is as follows:—

Delhi	11,13,772
Greater Bombay	13,76,292
Calcutta	7,58,380
Madras	5,06 793

(b) The objective of National Literacy Mission is to impart functional literacy to 80 million illiterate persons in 15-35 age group by 1995. On the basis of 1981 census data, the estimated number of adult illiterate in this age group in these four metropolitan cities is given below:—

Delhi	5,17,395
Bombay	5,35,286
Calcutta	2,74 371
Madras	2 05,359

It is expected that these illiterates will be made literate by 1995.

(c) Children in the lower groups will be crossing 15+ age group during the period in which National Literacy Mission will be in operation. As regards their literacy, National Policy on Education, 1986 stipulates that all children who attain the age of about 14 years by 1990 will have had five years of schooling or its equivalent through the non-formal stream. Likewise by 1995, all children will be provided free and compulsory education upto 14 years of age. The Government has launched Operation Blackboard and Scheme of Non-formal Education to operationalise above policy postulates.

(d) and (e) Children upto 14 years of age and 80 million illiterate in 15—35 age group will be made literate by 1995.
